1 King, Henry IV, formerly Henry Bolingbroke
2 Prince, Henry the Prince of Wales, mostly called Hal and sometimes Harry.
3 Lancaster, Prince John, Hal's younger brother.
4 Westmorland, Earl of Westmorland, loyal to the King

5 Blunt, Sir Walter Blunt, a nobleman loyal to the King

6 Northumberland, Henry Percy, the first Earl of Northumberland, opposed to the King
7 Hotspur, Harry Percy, eldest son of Northumberland
8 Worcester, Thomas Percy, Earl of Worcester, younger brother to Northumberland
9 Lady Percy, also called "Kate," Hotspur's wife and sister to Mortimer.
10 Mortimer, Edmund Mortimer, Lady Percy's brother and husband to Glendower's daughter.
11 Glendower, Owen Glendower, Welsh leader allied with the Percys
12 Lady Mortimer, Glendower's daughter married to Mortimer
13 Douglas, Archibald, Earl of Douglas, also called "the Douglas," allied with the Percys
14 Vernon, Sir Richard Vernon, allied with the Percys
15 Archbishop, Richard Scrope, Archbishop of York, allied with the Percys

16 Sir Michael, a follower of the Archbishop

17 Falstaff, Sir John Falstaff, companion to Prince Hal
18 Poins, also called "Ned" and "Yedward," companion to Prince Hal
19 Peto, companion to Prince Hal
20 Bardolph, companion to Prince Hal
21 Gadshill, a thief
22 Vintner, a tavern keeper
23 Hostess, Mistress Quickly, the tavern landlady
24 Francis, a "drawer" (barman) apprenticed to the Vintner
25 Chamberlain, a servant at the inn in Rochester
26 First Carrier
27 Second Carrier
28 Ostler, a stable-hand
29 Servant to Hotspur
30 Sheriff
31 – 2 Travelers
33 – 4 Messengers
35 – 8 Lords, Officers, Soldiers, Attendants