

Final Exam – Engl 1493-W106
2:00 PM – 5:00 PM

Fall – Winter, 2022 – 23
April 12, 2022

Name: _____
BAC 207

Instructions

Make sure your name is on this exam, and on your exam book. Before you start writing or answering any questions, read through this entire exam.

Answer the essay questions in the exam book. Answer all other questions here, on the exam paper. Be sure to put your answer(s) in the right place because that is the only place I will look for it or them, and the only place I will mark it or them.

Make sure your writing is legible. The exam is designed to take less than the allotted three hours so that you can take the time needed to think about your answers, so that you can write slowly enough to make your writing legible, and so that you can proofread the entire exam before turning it in.

Use a blue pen. Bring at least two, in case the first one runs dry.

You might also want to bring a highlighter or a red pen for the sake of the proofreading questions.

You can have the following books with you, and use them as necessary: a dictionary, The Rest is Silence, The Broadview Introduction to Literature, Concise Edition, and your notebook. Sticky notes of any colour are permitted in any of the forementioned, as are scribbles of any kind anywhere in The Rest is Silence and The Broadview Introduction.

Remember, you are writing an English exam. Write in complete, well-formed sentences.

Follow all the instructions. If you don't, I won't grade that question.

You must not access either a computer or a phone during the exam. If you are caught consulting either your phone or your computer for any purpose while you are writing the exam, your exam will be graded F. If you go to the washroom you must leave your phone where I can see it while you are out of the room.

PROOFREADING. 20% (Answer here)

Underline or highlight all the proofreading errors you spot. Only those sentences with all errors underlined or highlighted will earn a mark, unless there are no errors in that sentence. Assume any error you see is intentional. There will be eighteen such sentences. Incorrectly used capital letters and missing capital letters count as mistakes that need to be corrected. Some sentences may not have errors. Carefully underline or highlight each mistake you see here on the exam pages. Any you leave unmarked I will assume you think are correct as they appear.

E.g. Their will be eclipse tonite, and were going to drive outside of town to see it.

Their will be eclipse tonite, and were going to drive outside of town to see it.

Their will be eclipse tonite, and were going to drive outside of town to see it.

- 1) I wonder if the narrated read the book that his mothers gave him, and if he still has it.
- 2) From the details in the first part of this section I can tell it is becoming fall time, he describes the shorter days and the timing with potato harvesting, as well as the planting of garlic which topically happens around late fall.
- 3) He wonders why benny is so concerned with plastic and wonders why she wants plastic gone do bad
- 20) There is a lot . . .

READING TEST QUESTIONS 20% (Answer here)

1. [5%] Was “A Modest Proposal” harder to read than, for example, “The Rime of the Ancient Mariner”? ☐ Yes ☐ No

a. In the space provided below, explain why you answered as you did?

2. [2%] Given the characters in the play, do you think Everyman is:

☐ an epic ☐ a lyrical ballad ☐ an allegory ☐ a dramatic monologue

3. [2%] What is the name of the narrator in “The Yellow Wallpaper”? _____

4. [2%] Who is the mother of Oedipus’s children? _____

5. [2%] In the space provided below, explain how you know in what season “The Story of an Hour” is set? Make sure you’re clear about what season it is.

6. [2%] On p. 6 of our copy of “Politics and the English Language” Orwell describes what he’s just written as a “catalogue of swindles and perversions.” There are four. Name them.

7. [3%] “Why do you suppose Swift ends “A Modest Proposal” by telling us ‘I have no children by which I can propose to get a single penny, the youngest being nine years old, and my wife past childbearing.’” Answer in the space below.

8. [2%] From what point of view is the story told in “The Yellow Wallpaper?” _____

GRAMMAR QUESTIONS 20% (Answer here)

The Comma Splice 1

Five sentences

Unclear Pronoun Reference 2

Five sentences

Subject Verb Agreement 3

Five sentences

The Sentence Fragment 4

Five sentences

IN-CLASS QUESTIONS 20% (Answer here)

1. What genre is _____?
2. What genre is _____?
3. _____ is often defined as a _____.
4. The protagonist of _____ is _____.
5. Who said _____?
6. What’s the moral of _____?
7. Name any one of the _____ works we read this year.

8. _____, we were told, emphasizes three virtues. Name them: _____,

_____, and _____.

9. What did modernism _____ ? _____
10. What three word dictum did Ezra Pound famously use to capture the essence of modernism? _____ !
11. Bonus question: ? _____ .

ESSAY QUESTIONS 20% (Answer in exam book)

Answer both these questions in your exam book. Be sure to write legibly. I will NOT strain to read anyone's handwriting. Take your time. Write large enough for me to see what you write, and write or print clearly enough for me to be able to understand what you write.

- A. Compare and contrast "The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock" with "The Waste Land."
- B. On p. 315 of The Rest is Silence Art says "We all experience heartbreak, betrayals, loss. We tell stories to each other to make sense of that suffering." Explain how this fits the novel.